Write about 100 to 150 words in the following topic: Do you believe in vampires, ghosts or other supernatural forces? Why or why not?

Many people are attracted to the world of vampires and ghosts, as we can see from the success of current TV programmes and films. However, I am neither a fan of this type of stories nor do I believe in them.

Nevertheless, I must admit that this has not always been the case. When I was a child I was scared by this type of films, and whenever someone began to tell a horror story involving ghosts and monsters, I would try to leave the room unnoticed.

As I grew older, I realised that vampires, ghosts, monsters, and suchlike are just the product of the over creative imagination of writers. It is true that some people admit having seen ghosts, but then again, none of them can prove it. So, why should we be frightened by something that might not exist after all?
