The last book that I read was titled The Good Soldier and it was written by Ford Maddox Ford. I enjoyed reading the book both because of its intriguing plot and its style.

The novel is set in Europe at the beginning of the twentieth century. It is about two wealthy couples, one American, one British, who meet at a health resort in the town of Nauheim and spend the next years of their acquaintance travelling around Europe together. However, two of them get too close and begin a relationship hidden from their partners. Finally, the main character, the narrator of the story, finds only too late that his wife is not what she seemed to be, and that this is not the only time she has been unfaithful to him.

I would recommend this novel because it is a sad but hopeful story and its characters are very well drawn from the very beginning.
