Write about 100 to 150 words in the following topic: What is your favourite type of music?

Nowadays there are so many types of music that it is hard to listen to just one. However, if I have to choose one out of all the different trends, I think I will single out rock music.

I like listening to rock music because there are many styles involved in it and many good bands as well as solo artists that have devoted their talent to this type of music. Today, Bob Dylan or the Rolling Stones may seem out of date but their music is still heard in discos, radios, or film soundtracks and their lyrics still inspire many young artists.

Nevertheless, I like listening to nearly all types of music as I think it is fulfilling and relaxing.
