Write about 100 to 150 words in the following topic: Have you ever seen a film or read a book about an animal that showed its feelings. Explain.

I recently saw a film about a dog trying to save his master who had had an accident.

The dog showed its anxiety by its repeated efforts to awake its master from his unconscious state. However, when this was not possible, the dog went to look for help having to face dangers from other wild animals and many other difficulties.

When the dog eventually arrived at an small town, it tried valiantly to attract people's attention, but most people either ignored it or told it to go away. However, the dog persisted and at last managed to convince a boy to follow it.

In conclusion, it was obvious that the animal was emotionally disturbed and the efforts it made to save its master showed a high degree of emotional feelings.
